

Privacy Policy

International Schools Partnership Limited (“ISP”) is committed to protecting and respecting your privacy. For the purposes of the General Data Protection Regulations (“GDPR”) and any subsequent UK legislation covering data protection, the Data Controller is ISP. References to ISP, us or we in this Policy should be read to include the schools owned or operated by ISP.

This Policy sets out why we collect personal information about individuals and how we use that information. It explains the legal basis for this and the rights you have over the way your information is used.

This Policy covers ISP in relation to the collection and use of the information you give us (including our schools). We may change this Policy from time to time. If we make any significant changes we will advertise this on the website or contact you directly with the information. Please check this page occasionally to make sure you are happy with any changes.

By providing your information, or the information of any student for whom you are responsible (whether via our website, in person, in writing or over the phone) to us, you acknowledge the processing set out in this Policy. Further notices highlighting certain uses we wish to make of your information together with the ability to opt in or out of selected uses may also be provided when we collect information from you. Some of the processing activities referred to in this Policy are undertaken by our schools, whereas other processing is undertaken by ISP as the ultimate owner of the Schools, depending on the details of the processing. We can confirm which processing activities are undertaken by which entity on request of a data subject.

If you have any questions about this Policy or concerning your personal information, please contact us by email to info@ISPSchools.com or by post to 101 Wigmore Street, London W1U 1QU, in each case marked for the attention of the Chief Financial Officer and Head of Group Legal.

What type of personal information we collect

The type and amount of information we collect depends on why you are providing it.

The information we collect when you make an enquiry includes:

- First name
- Last name
- Job title
- Gender
- Preferred pronoun
- Date and place of birth
- Email (for login)
- Address (including billing address)
- Postcode

Approved by: Steve Brown on 22/04/2020

- Geo-location data (your geographical location based on your IP address)
- Student information (including admission information)

If you are a job applicant, the information you are asked to provide is as set out in the application and necessary for the purposes of our considering the application.

How we collect information

We may collect information from you whenever you contact us or have any involvement with us for example when you:

- visit our website
- enquire about our activities or services
- sign up to receive news about our activities
- post content onto our website/social media sites
- attend a meeting with us and provide us with information
- take part in our events
- contact us in any way including online, email, phone, SMS, social media or post

Where we collect information from

We collect information:

- (1) from you when you give it to us directly: you may provide your details when you ask us for information, attend our events or contact us for any other reason. Your information may be collected by an organisation we are working with, but we are still responsible for your information.
- (2) when you give it to us indirectly: your information may be shared with us by other organisations. They should only do so in the way they have set out in their own Privacy Policy which you should check when you give your details.
- (3) when you have given other organisations permission to share it: your information may be provided to us by other organisations if you have given them your permission. This might for example be a business working with us or when you buy a product or service from a third-party organisation. The information we receive from other organisations depends on your settings or the option responses you have given them.
- (4) when you use our website: information about you is recorded and stored when you use our website. See the information about the use of cookies under that heading below.
- (5) when it is available on social media: depending on your settings or the privacy policies applying for social media and messaging services you use, like Facebook, Instagram or Twitter, you might give us permission to access information from those accounts or services.

How we use your information

We will use your personal information in a number of ways which reflect the legal basis applying to processing of your data. These may include:

Approved by: Steve Brown on 22/04/2020

- providing you with the information or services you have asked for (which may include us sharing information with our regional office teams which undertake management functions)
- sending you communications with your consent that may be of interest, including marketing information about our services and activities
- when necessary, for carrying out obligations under any contract between us (for example, enrolment activities, providing educational and related services (including extra-curricular activities))
- seeking your views on the services or activities we carry on, so that we can make improvements
- maintaining our organisational records and ensuring we know how you prefer to be contacted
- analysing the operation of our website and analysing your website behaviour to improve the website and its usefulness
- processing job applications
- in connection with our legal or regulatory obligations

Use of Aggregated Data

Where Data can be aggregated (and anonymised), we may use this for research purposes without restriction.

For example, we may monitor customer traffic patterns, site and services usage and related information in order to optimise users' usage of the site and services and we may give aggregated statistics to a reputable third-party.

We are entitled to do this because the resulting data will not personally identify you and will therefore no longer constitute personal data for the purposes of data protection laws.

Our legal basis for processing your information

The use of your information for the purposes set out above is lawful because one or more of the following applies:

- where you have provided information to us for the purposes of requesting information or requesting that we carry out a service for you, we will proceed on the basis that you have given consent to us using the information for that purpose, based on the way that you provided the information to us. You may withdraw consent at any time by emailing us at info@ispschools.com. This will not affect the lawfulness of processing of your information prior to your withdrawal of consent being received and actioned;
- it is necessary for us to hold and use your information so that we can carry out our obligations under a contract entered into with you or to take steps you ask us to prior to entering into a contract;
- it is necessary to comply with our legal obligations;
- where the purpose of our processing is the provision of information or services to you, we may also rely on the fact that it is necessary for our legitimate interests in relation to providing the information or service requested, and given that you have made the request, would presume that there is no prejudice to you in our fulfilling your request.

If you want to contact us about your marketing preferences please contact info@ispschools.com, or call on +44 (0) 20 3867 7000.

Approved by: Steve Brown on 22/04/2020

How we keep your information safe

We understand the importance of keeping your personal information secure and take appropriate steps to safeguard it. Also, personal and sensitive data undergoes security reviews and any financial or sensitive personal information adheres to our Data Protection Policy.

All information you provide us is stored on secure servers and accessed and used subject to our security policies and standards (which includes the appropriate training of users to manage your information).

No data transmission over the internet can be guaranteed to be completely secure. So whilst we strive to safeguard your information, we cannot guarantee the security of any information you provide online and you do this at your own risk.

Who has access to your information?

- Third parties who provide services for us, for example trusted consultancy work relating to Business Development, Staff Recruitment, Finance and Marketing activities. We select our third-party service providers with upmost care. We provide these third parties with the information that is necessary to provide the service and we will have an agreement in place that requires them to operate with the same care over data protection as we do
- Third parties if we run an event in conjunction with them. We will let you know how your data is used when you register for any event
- Analytics and search engine providers that help us to improve our website and its use
- Third parties in connection with restructuring or reorganisation of our operations, for example if we merge with another business. In such event, we will take steps to ensure your privacy rights will be protected by the third party

Owing to matters such as financial or technical considerations, the information you provide to us may be transferred to countries outside the European Economic Area (EEA), which are not subject to the same data protection regulations as apply in the UK. We do this because it is sometimes stored on servers outside the EEA or we use suppliers based outside the EEA. We meet our obligations under GDPR by ensuring that the information has equivalent protection as if it were being held within the EEA. We do this by ensuring that any third parties processing your data outside the EEA either benefits from an adequacy determination for GDPR purposes and/or, where appropriate, we have entered into a data processing agreement which contains model EU clauses.

We may also disclose your personal information if we are required to do so under any legal obligation and may use external data for the purposes of fraud prevention and credit risk reduction, or where doing so would not infringe your rights, but is necessary and in the public interest.

Other than this, we will not share your information with other organisations without your consent.

Keeping your information up to date

Please would you let us know if your contact details change. You can do so by contacting us at info@ispschools.com.

Cookies

In addition to the information which you supply to us, information and data may be automatically collected through the use of cookies. Cookies are small text files employed on the Site to recognise repeat users and allow us to observe behaviour and compile aggregate data in order to improve the Site for you. For example, cookies will tell us whether you viewed the Site with sound or with text on your last visit. Cookies also allow us to count the number of unique and return visitors to our Site. Some of our associated companies may themselves use cookies on their own websites. We have no access to, or control of these cookies, should this occur.

Cookies may be either “persistent” cookies or “session” cookies. A persistent cookie consists of a text file sent by a web server to a web browser, which will be stored by the browser and will remain valid until its set expiry date (unless deleted by the user before the expiry date). A session cookie, on the other hand, will expire at the end of the user session, when the web browser is closed.

The law states that we can store cookies on your machine if they are essential to the operation of the Site, but that for all others we need your permission to do so.

The list below explains the cookies we use and why:

Cookie Description	Name	Purpose
Google Analytics	_ga	Used to distinguish users
Google Analytics	_gid	Used to distinguish users
Google Analytics	_gat	Used to throttle request rate
CloudFlare	_cfduid	Identify individual clients behind a shared IP address and apply security settings on a per-client basis.  This cookie is strictly necessary for Cloudflare's security features and cannot be turned off.
addThis	_atuvc	enable visitors to share content with a range of networking and sharing platforms. It stores an updated page share count.
addThis	_atufs	enable visitors to share content with a range of networking and sharing platforms. It stores an updated page share count.

Opting out of cookies

If you do not wish to receive cookies from us or any other website, you should be able to turn cookies off on your web browser: please follow your browser provider's instruction in order to do so. Unfortunately, we cannot accept liability for any malfunctioning of your PC or its installed web browser as a result of any attempt to turn off cookies.

To find out more about cookies, including how to see what cookies have been set and how to manage and delete them, visit www.aboutcookies.org or www.allaboutcookies.org.

How long we keep your information for

We will hold your personal information for as long as it is necessary for the relevant activity and any other permitted linked purpose. Please see our Records Retention Policy here www.ispschools.com.

Where we rely on your consent to contact you for direct marketing purposes, we will treat your consent as lasting only for as long as it is reasonable to do so. This will usually be for two years. We may periodically ask you to renew your consent.

If you ask us to stop contacting you with marketing materials, we will keep a record of your contact details and limited information needed to ensure we comply with your request.

Your rights

You have the right to request details of the processing activities that we carry out with your personal information through making a subject access request. Such requests have to be made in writing<sup>1</sup>. More details about how to make a request, and the procedure to be followed, can be found in our Data Protection Policy. To make a request, please contact us at info@ispschools.com.

You also have the following rights:

- the right to request rectification of information that is inaccurate or out of date;
- the right to erasure of your information (known as the "right to be forgotten");
- the right to restrict the way in which we are dealing with and using your information; and
- the right to request that your information be provided to you in a format that is secure and suitable for re-use (known as the "right to portability");
- rights in relation to automated decision making and profiling including profiling for marketing purposes.

All of these rights are subject to certain safeguards and limits or exemptions, further details of which can be found in our Data Protection Policy. To exercise any of these rights, you should contact the Finance Director at the above address.

If you are not happy with the way in which we have processed or dealt with your information, you can complain to the Information Commissioner's Office. Further details about how to complain can be found here.

Surveys and user groups

<sup>1</sup> If the request is 'manifestly unfounded or excessive', or, further copies are requested, we/the data controller may charge a reasonable administration fee.

Approved by: Steve Brown on 22/04/2020

We always aim to improve the services we offer. As a result, we occasionally canvass our customers using surveys (where the customer has opted in for this). Participation in surveys is voluntary, and you are under no obligation to reply to any survey you might receive from us. Should you choose to do so, we will treat the information you provide with the same high standard of care as all other customer information.

Competitions

Your participation on our Site may mean that we occasionally contact you with the opportunity to enter competitions (where you have opted in to receive information about competitions). Entry to competitions is voluntary, and you are under no obligation to take up an invitation from us to enter. Should you choose to enter a competition, we will treat the information you provide with the same high standard of care as all other customer information, and use the information provided strictly within the entry terms of the competition and this Privacy Policy.

Changes to this Privacy Policy

This Policy may be changed from time to time. If we make any significant changes we will advertise this on our website or contact you directly with the information. We recommend that you read this Privacy Policy each time you consider giving your personal information to us.

Last update of policy:

This Policy was last updated in April 2020.
